

TRAMPED FAR TO SEE FAIRYLAND

Little Girls From Ludlow Street Found Asleep in Harlem Doorway.

Becky Fisher and Esther Cohen and Dora Freedman went to school this morning much wiser than when they left yesterday for their homes, at No. 125 Ludlow street, after their lessons yesterday afternoon. The little girls—Becky, Esther and Dora—are each six—had their one cherished dream realized; but after all, it wasn't such a fairyland as they had supposed it would be. That's what they told their teacher. Policeman Podolski relieved the minds of three extremely anxious parents about 9 o'clock last night when he took the little girls home. He had found them fast asleep in a doorway at Third avenue and One Hundred and Tenth street, where they had stopped for rest after journeying all the way from Ludlow street to Central Park to see the bears, monkeys, swines, boats and other wonderful things of which some of their playmates at school had told them. Becky and Esther and Dora were mightily tired after that long walk, and that's why they sat down in the strange doorway for a rest. Then they fell asleep and it remained for Policeman Podolski to wake them.

ADRIATIC SUICIDE GAVE SIGNS OF INSANITY.

John Kraus Had Been Acting Strangely Before Sailing for New York.

PARIS, Nov. 20.—The name of E. J. Dickinson was found among the effects of John Kraus, the San Francisco, who committed suicide yesterday on board the steamer Adriatic while that vessel was going from Cherbourg to Queenstown. Mr. Dickinson is a New Yorker, and is in business outside of Paris.

He explained to-day that he met Mr. Kraus casually a short time ago and was struck by the evident signs of his mental disturbance. He plainly was in bad health and low spirits, and he acted as if suffering from the mania of persecution, as he was suspicious of everybody. But he did not talk of suicide. Mr. Kraus stopped at the Grand Hotel in Paris, and his queer conduct attracted attention.

GRANT-LEE MONUMENT.

Joint Memorial to Civil War Generals Proposed in Virginia.

SPOTTSYLVANIA, Va., Nov. 20.—A joint monument of heroic size, to be located on the "Blood Angle" battle ground, in memory of Gen. Robert E. Lee and Gen. Ulysses S. Grant, to be erected with funds collected in both North and South, has been suggested here by patriotic citizens. The promoters of the movement believe such a memorial, to stand on Southern soil, will do much toward erasing sectional lines. The present plans are to enlist the aid and co-operation of the next session of the Virginia Legislature.

In a week or two there will be so many thousands here on Saturdays that not half as much can be seen. And half the holiday worry is over when the little folks decide what they want.

Bring the Little folks to Wanamaker's TOMORROW. Toy Store, Fourth floor, Old Building.

Women's Broadcloth Suits at $30

For Saturday morning, two groups of smartly designed models offer exceptionally fine values at $30. One princess model with coat has plain clinging skirt trimmed with buttons and bias fold. The bodice is trimmed with strapping and small revers, and is to be worn with chemise or guimpe, plaited cloth sleeves. Coat is straight cut, half-fitted, single-breasted with velvet collar, close-fitting coat sleeves, lined throughout with satin. The other style has a single-breasted coat, knee-length, pointed front and back, with large patch pockets, turnover collar of satin, close-fitting sleeves, lined throughout with satin. The skirt is gored, close-fitting, finished with wide fold.

You will also find unusual values throughout our entire stock, particularly in our $15 and $23.75 Suits.

Women's SEPARATE SKIRTS.

In our splendidly complete assortment there is a wide range of prices and all the best styles. They include gored and plaited skirts and dressy collant trained skirts, mounted on high girdles which outline the figure and fall in graceful folds. These skirts we have had copied from some of our Paris suits. You will find a splendid assortment at the following prices: In suitings, $8 to $9; Panama cloths, $5 to $13.50; broadcloths, $9 to $18; silk-lined voile, $16.50 to $25; tulle silk, $12 to $17.50; satins, $14.50 and $15; velvet, $19.

Skirts at $4 and $6, regularly $6.50 to $12

Some of which are manufacturer's samples, others taken from our own stock. The materials are cheviot, cloth, Panama cloth, unlined voile—made in gored, plaited styles, with trimming of tulle, satin or strapping of self material. Second floor, Old Building.

Women's Smart SAMPLE SUITS

at $14.75

One of the particular advantages to us of the great business we do is illustrated in the present offering of these extremely stylish Tailored Suits at $14.75. We were able to pick out the best models here and there from the maker's sample lines—which results in a collection of extreme variety and interest, with values running from $20 to $25.

Materials are broadcloths, chevots and worsteds, in navy blue, green, wine and black—all in the season's most desirable models, one of which is illustrated herewith.

Sizes are chiefly 34, 36 and 38, with, however, a limited number in 32 and 40. And the price is but $14.75—think of it!

And This Fine News: Women's Caracul Coats, $14.75

With the right sort of caracul cloth as scarce as it is this season, this news is extraordinary. These coats are full-length, semi-fitted, and hang very gracefully; with large Roll Collar; lined with excellent satin-finished Venetian cloth. Remarkably handsome coats, with almost the luxurious look of fur—sizes 34 to 42, and particularly good value at $14.75.

Women's Kersey Coats at $9.75

Just a special piece of good fortune—usually such coats as these would cost half again as much as their tomorrow's price. Made of good all-wool kersey cloth, full length, semi-fitted, with large revers, lined with satin to waist; sizes 34 to 42. $9.75 each. Illustrated at right of picture.

Women's Taffeta Silk Petticoats, $3.75

Just by driving a hard bargain with the manufacturer we get these stylish petticoats to sell at $3.75. Black and colors, plain or changeable, with deep sectional flounce and percaline underlay.

Cozy Kimonos at 75c

Pretty Persian designs, in a soft, warm quality of flannel. Plaited front and back; scalloped edge.

Lawn Shirt-waists at $1

White Lawn Waists, fresh and pretty, with pointed yoke effect of embroidery and lace; plaited back and long, lace-trimmed sleeves. The value is exceptional at $1.

Very Good Aprons at 18c

They are of white lawn, without bib, but with hem-stitched hem. Much better than usual at the price.

Stylish Suits for Young Women, $10

But not mere $10 suits, by any means—values run one-third higher, at least. They are handsomely made of fancy cheviot, in black, navy blue, brown, green and mixtures, in a varied range of styles, including long and medium jackets, with plaited and gored skirts. Sizes for 12 to 18 years.

Girls' Woolen Dresses at $3.75

The style of these pretty dresses was copied from more expensive models—they certainly have the air of costing more than they do. Made of blue, brown and red hard-finished serge, mostly trimmed with braid; also some in sailor style. Sizes for 6 to 14 years. $3.75 each.

Girls' Cheviot Coats, $5

Amusing to think that such coats can be sold for $5—as a matter of fact, it is only due to a peculiar state of affairs that it is possible. The coats are long-skirt length, for girls of 6 to 14 years, are all wool, lined with red flannel; colors are red, blue, brown and green; altogether they are as warm, handsome and stylish as any little girl would wish to wear. $5 each.

Men's SHIRTS at 75c—Men's SCARFS at 25c

Two perfectly splendid offerings for men for tomorrow's selling:

The SHIRTS at 75c

Many kinds, and but a few of a kind you won't get "common" patterns. Shirts we would regularly sell at $1, with our own label. Very handsome madras and percale, in the comfortable coat styles, plaited or negligee bosoms, cuffs attached. Sizes 14 to 17. 75c each.

The SCARFS at 25c

Most neckwear sold elsewhere at this price is odds and ends that DID NOT GO at 50c. These scarfs are all new, fresh goods, made to our order, in fresh, bright colorings and patterns, in a fine assortment, and better than you can ever buy regularly elsewhere at 25c. Come in and look them over.

Wanamaker Lower Price Basement

(Old Building) Store Closes at 6 P. M.

"Lower-Price" Shoes for Children

Aptly named—they are lower in price than you would imagine for such sturdy, excellent quality, and quite in keeping with the principles of the Basement Store in their merit for a little price. Bring the children here and save money.

Girls' Shoes at $1.50

Button, of plump kidskin, with patent leather tips; sizes 11 to 2. Smaller sizes, $1.30; larger $1.90.

Boys' Shoes at $1.50

Gun-metal calf, Blucher lace, full round toes; 10 to 13½.

Small Boys' Shoes at $1.30

Small Children's Shoes at 75c and $1

Boys' All-Wool Suits

Real Prices at $3.85

It takes the least bit of knowledge of values in Boys' Suits to understand how splendid these are at $3.85. The materials haven't a thread of cotton; the suits are silk-sewed, well-made and stylish.

Blue Serge Russian Blouse Suits, 3 to 7 years.
Blue Serge Sailor Blouse, 5 to 10 years.
Fancy Cheviot Reefers, 3 to 12 years.

All $3.85, instead of $5

And a fine lot of BOYS' BLOUSE WAISTS, with slight factory imperfections, usually 50c, 75c and $1. Sizes 7 to 15 years, at 30c each.

Babies' Winter COATS, $3.50

Samples—Best Sort of Bargains

Not a coat in the whole attractive lot would regularly sell for such a little price as $3.50. They are a maker's samples, well made, warm and pretty. Broadcloths, corduroy, in gray, red and navy blue—smart tailored models or trimmed effects. Sizes 2 to 6 years, at $3.50 each.

Caps to Wear with Them, $1

Felt flare Bonnets, with full chiffon ruche, trimmed with satin ribbon, chiffon rosettes and flowers, in white and colors. Sizes for 2 to 6 years.

Children's Warm Nightgowns at 50c

Pink or blue flannel, trimmed with wash braid; sizes for 2 to 14 years.
